

Victory Faith Centre, Geelong

Privacy Statement

At Victory Faith Centre we respect your right to privacy and accept that we have a responsibility to deal carefully and properly with the information you give us.

1. Collection of information

We may collect general information such as name, address, phone number and email address so we can contact you about Victory Faith Centre events and services.

2. Use and disclosure

We use the information only for the purpose we have disclosed and/or state in our privacy statement.

Your information may be used to:

- Provide you with products and/or information you have requested from the Church,
- Answer a query,
- Keep you informed of new developments and upcoming meetings.